d e d i c a t i o n

We, the Class of January 1957, would like to take this opportunity to show our appreciation to our beloved parents. They, together with our teachers, have enhanced our times of happiness and minimized our moments of despair. They have instilled in us high spiritual and moral standards.

This book is hereby dedicated to our parents in the hope that it will convey to them our deepest thanks and humble gratitude.

Administration

Congratulations to the Class of January 1957. You have attained one of life's big goals. Do not underrate its value. Above all do not overrate it.

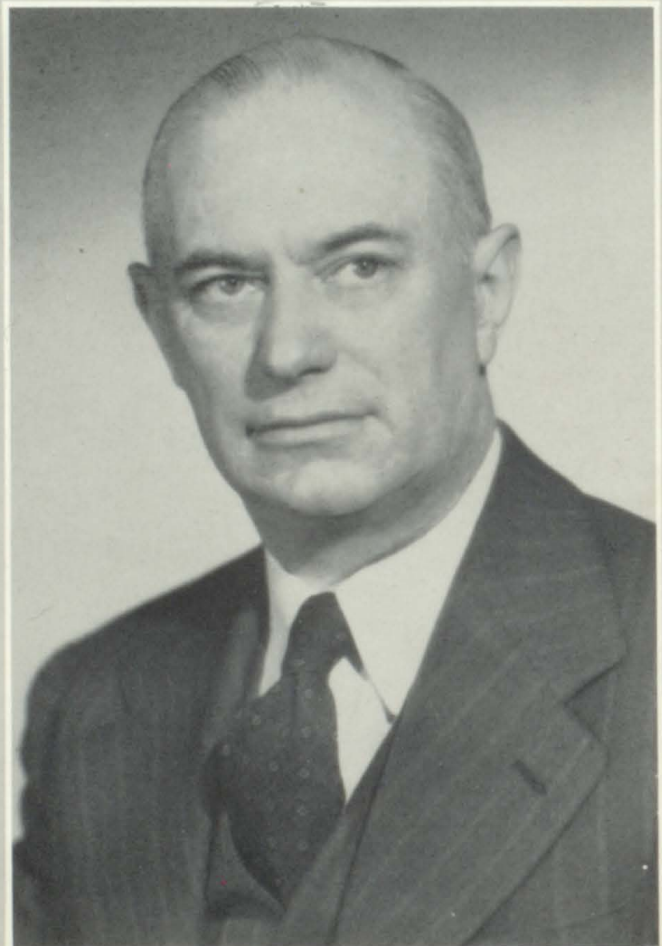

It is a significant accomplishment which should merely lead on to greater achievements. You should be able to think objectively, dispassionately and with some judgment. You should be planning to read a worth while book every week. These are simple yet important accomplishments.

"Quit you like men; be strong!"

GRACE GROTE . . . OUR DIRECTOR

Mrs. Grace Grote comes back to West Side High School after her memorable production of "George Washington Slept Here" last term. Mrs. Grote graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a B.A. degree in the College of Liberal Arts and a B.E. degree in the College of Education. Before returning to the East, she taught Speech, Dramatics, and English in the Walnut Hills High School of Cincinnati. She spent five years with The Actors Guild and is a member of Actors Equity. Mrs. Grote has toured in productions of "Snafu" and "Junior Miss" and has done summer stock in Connecticut and New York.

DONALD GROTE

Mr. Donald Grote, a science teacher, is the husband of our esteemed director. He, like his wife, is very active in the field of dramatics and has taken charge of all the technical work connected with "You Can't Take It With You." Experienced in rebuilding, planning, and installing sound and lighting systems, Mr. Grote was technical director for one year with the Little Theatre of East Orange and for three years worked in that capacity with the Blackfriar Theatre of the University of Alabama.

The faculty advisers and senior class would like to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Grote for their patience, kindness, and help in making the Senior Show a success. Working with them has been one of the happiest experiences of our three years at West Side.

school song

In morning light and evening fall,
Through all the days of coming years—
In times when glowing futures call—
In hearts with laughter and with tears,
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

This love we have for you has grown
More bright than any treasured gold,
It deepens through each friend we've known.
Each truth that to our hearts is told.
Within the shelter of your walls,
Within the rooms where wisdom calls.
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

Though we have need to wander far,
Close in our hearts your name will be.
Your goodness, like a radiant star,
Will rise with every memory,
And having these sweet dreams of you,
We shall remember and be true.
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

In morning light and evening fall,
Through all the days of coming years,
In times when glowing futures call,
In hearts with laughter and with tears,
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!

last will and testament

We, the Graduating Class of January 1957 of West Side High School, being of brilliant mind, though a bit fuzzy around the edges, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

Mrs. Offenkrantz . . . A bigger tea kettle.

Mr. Hill . . . A blow torch to burn somebody.

Mrs. Kaplan . . . Another homeroom of Kaplan's Kool Kats.

Mr. Rosenberg . . . An accounting class that knows the difference between ALP and ICE.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons . . . One gas mask.

Mr. Kriegsfeld . . . A tack on his chair so he can stick to the point.

Mrs. Jaffe . . . A long string to tie her staple machine to.

Mr. Dudas . . . A book of new stories about the Army.

Mr. Strouse . . . One piece of wood free of mill marks.

Miss Clarke . . . Peace, until the next graduating class starts working on its yearbook.

Mr. Ormond . . . A zero stamp.

Miss Schneiderman . . . A pair of high heel sneakers.

Mr. Weinstein . . . A pair of suspenders to hold up his pants.

Miss Lewis . . . A private secretary.
